

PEACE GOES WITH BRYAN Chicago Factious Renew Hostilities When He Departs.

Each Claims His Favor. Harrison Improved His Opportunities Well—The Altgeld Leaders Believe They Made a Good Impression—George Fred Williams Caused Surprise in the National Committee—His Course Amused the Members.

[Special New York Herald Service.] Chicago, Ill., July 22.—Members of the Democratic National Committee who stayed here after the session have now gone, and Democratic political affairs in Chicago are settling down into their accustomed path.

The differences between the Altgeld and Harrison factions are as far from settled as ever. Leaders on each side profess to have obtained favor with the National committee men while members of that body say they are anxious to avoid taking sides with either faction.

Bryan did not commit himself to either side. He praised the Altgeld men for devotion to principle, and the followers of Harrison for allegiance to both party and principle.

He had prepared a list of men in attendance at the Chicago platform meeting who thought their services for him during his first Mayoralty campaign, when he was supported by Altgeld, deserved reward in the shape of political office.

George Fred Williams of Massachusetts, who was elected an active member of the Democratic National Committee and took his seat for the first time on Thursday, is said to have quickly distinguished himself as a fighter.

Williams a Surprise. "I was surprised," said a committee man, "that Mr. Williams, a candidate for vice president, should adopt the course he did."
